OUR PURPOSE

The purpose of the Kalamazoo Valley Boy’s Basketball Camp is to develop boys into the best basketball players they can be by emphasizing individual basketball skills, teamwork, self-discipline and sportsmanship.

We want to help motivate campers to become the best basketball players they can be by emphasizing hard work and setting high goals for themselves. With instruction from current and former college basketball players and highly qualified coaches from area schools, campers will leave knowing the proper fundamentals and effort needed to be able to push them to the next level in order to meet the goals they set.

Just as important as individual skills are to a player’s game, being a good teammate is just as important. Through daily station competitions, team contests, and five on five games, each camper will be put in pressure situations that allow them to learn and demonstrate how a good teammate should act.

“Our coaching staff understands the importance of being a good individual player, but they also know that one player can’t do everything be themselves. In order to be the best player possible you must be the best teammate possible as well. Promoting teamwork is something our camp staff does a great job of while also making sure players are pushing themselves to be the best player they can be.”

- Matt Dennis, KVCC Men’s Basketball Coach
